MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY

DUES DUES DUES DUES DUES DUES DUES

The dues bills of a few of our Brethren showed an amount due because of the non-payment of the prior year's dues – arrears. In fairness your Brethren cannot be asked to cover from their dues what you should have paid. In early June, the Supreme Council will close its books and send us a bill based on the number of active members we have, therefore we will be suspending those who still owe arrears. If there is ANYTHING which has happened which would make such a payment a hardship for you, your Brethren will insist on extending the Brotherly Hand and assist you through this low period. Call me at 978-283-5579 and let me know. Nothing you say will go any further. But since I am not a mind-reader, I require your help. Please let me know what your Valley can do for you and avoid suspension.
